KETCHIKAN, ALASKA | WEDNESDAY, MAY 19, 2010 | ALL ABOARD 4:30PM
DRESS: SMART CASUAL WEATHER: SHOWERS 59F/15C

Welcome to Ketchikan, Alaska

Ketchikan snakes for several miles along the southwestern shore of Revillagigedo Island, facing Tongass Narrows. With 14,000 inhabitants, this fourth largest community is known as "Alaska's First City" because it is the first town travelers reach when ferrying north. The city was established in 1887 when a salmon cannery was built at the mouth of Ketchikan Creek. Today, fishermen and loggers still contribute to a colorful atmosphere in the cafés and bars around the waterfront along Tongass Avenue and Front Street. Situated at the conjunction of three cultures - Tlingit, Haida and Tsimshian - the community proudly features the Totem Heritage Cultural Center, the Totem Bight State Park and the Saxman Native Village.

FROM THE NAVIGATOR

Overnight our route took us into the Revillagigedo Channel and toward the Twin Island Pilot Station where we embarked the first of our Alaskan Pilots. The Pilot takes the 'conn' of the ship and leads us into Tongass Narrows in the early morning and toward our assigned dock in Ketchikan. We expect to be all fast by 7:00am.
